

Thanks

Dr. Rieber, for fixing my knee, so I can do all the things I love to do, Sincerely,

Robin

We sent another card
just in case those people

A photograph of a person rappelling down a dark, craggy rock face. The person is wearing a white t-shirt, a harness, and a helmet. A rope is attached to their harness and extends upwards. A speech bubble is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing text. The background shows more of the rock face and some greenery at the top left.

Hey, my knee works pretty good for CLIMBING TOO!!!

*Well, he said that I'd be able to snowboard.....
HEY, I CAN SNOWBOARD!!!!*
